

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF ELECTION COMMISSIONER, New Delhi

Dated: 05/10/2026

To,

All Esteemed Members of AROI,

Subject: Request to refrain from electronic canvassing during AROI elections (voting period upto 7 October 2026)

Respected Colleagues,

As you are aware, the elections to the various executive posts of the Association of Radiation Oncologists of India (AROI) and ICRO are being conducted through secure e-voting from 1 October 2026 to 7 October 2026, with results to be declared on 8 October 2026.

The Office of the Chief Election Commissioner, AROI, has issued a notice requesting all members to refrain from campaigning, canvassing, soliciting votes, or circulating any campaign-related material on social media and messaging platforms, including WhatsApp, email, SMS, Facebook, Telegram, and similar electronic media, during the voting period. This request is intended to ensure a fair, impartial, peaceful, and transparent voting process and to maintain the dignity of the election.

In view of this, I earnestly request you to:

1. Not send or forward any messages, appeals, posters, videos, or promotional material related to any candidate or panel on electronic platforms (WhatsApp, email, SMS, social media, etc.) during the voting period (up to 7.10.2026).
2. Not encourage others to circulate such electronic campaign material.
3. If you wish to discuss the election or candidates, please do so through personal conversation, printed material, or other non-electronic means, in keeping with the spirit of the Association's guidance.

Let us collectively uphold the professionalism and integrity of our Association by respecting this request and allowing every member to exercise their franchise freely and without undue influence.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Dr Kishore Singh,
Chief election commissioner, AROI
