Greetings! We cordially invite you all to take part in the Educational Course of the International Stereotactic Radiosurgery Society (ISRS; www.ISRSy.org), which will be held in Kochi, Kerala, India, on August 24-26th, 2023.

Starting from December 2016, ISRS has launched its educational program with regular organization of courses with a purpose to disseminate knowledge on current applications of stereotactic irradiation in management of various neurosurgical and somatic diseases, and to provide continuous medical education in this field. Events were organized in various countries (Brazil, China, Egypt, Finland, Georgia, Hungary, Italy, Latvia, Russia, Switzerland, UK). Although in 2020-2021 the activities of ISRS were interrupted owing to the worldwide COVID pandemic, the educational programs have been restored now. For the first time the ISRS Educational Course is being held in South India, in the beautiful state of Kerala.

The event will be organized in collaboration with the International Stereotactic Radiosurgery Society (ISRS) and Amrita Institute of Medical Sciences, Kochi & Delhi-NCR with affiliation from Indian Society of Neurooncology (ISNO).
